I will need to know more information concerning the proposed dismissal before I am able to state an objection or not. Why is he seeking dismissal without prejudice at this time? As you know, there is a pending motion to dismiss. Furthermore, the School District has incurred significant costs and attorney's fees as a result of having to defend against the claims asserted by Dr. Sisney. With regard thereto, is the plaintiff willing to agree to any refiling of this action contingent upon the payment of these costs and fees which have already been incurred?

Answers to these questions are necessary in order for me to make an informed decision regarding your request.
